REASONS to become a member of ATA-DC

1. Members receive a free subscription to the ATA News Magazine
   The ATA News Magazine is a full color, print version community magazine published quarterly, keeping you up to date on all the goings on in the Turkish community in DC.

2. Digital Membership Card
   Membership in ATA-DC brings you a digital membership card. This new concept already gets you great discounts with Turkish Airlines. We are about to release new, exciting offers with additional local and international services you use every day.

3. Get involved: Voting Rights
   All ATA-DC Members are eligible to vote in every ATA-DC board election. After one year of membership, you are eligible to nominate yourself and other members to the all-volunteer board. Either way, make sure your voice is heard.

4. Networking events
   Throughout the year, ATA-DC sponsors social and business meetings showcasing Turkish businesses and people in the community. Get yourself, and your company recognized, expand your business network, gain new friends, or just come and enjoy the day.

5. Special discounts and advance buy options
   ATA-DC members get special discounts on many ATA-DC and its partner events and activities such as The Atatürk School and the Turkish Republic Day Ball. Many events are free exclusively for our members.

6. Community Connection
   ATA-DC remains an outstanding way to connect with others. Legal, business, community, health, marketing, language. ATA-DC can link you with people in the know who can answer your questions.

Who are we?
The American Turkish Association of Washington, DC (ATA-DC) is a 501(c)(3), non-profit, all-volunteer organization, which was founded in 1965. ATA-DC is not affiliated with any government, political party or group.

Our Mission
Promote Turkish culture in the U.S. and build friendship between Turkish and American people as we foster a stronger Turkish American community in the Washington DC metro area through educational, social and cultural activities.

What are ATA-DC’s programs?

Turkish Heritage Month & Washington DC Turkish Festival which includes the award-winning Turkish Restaurant week, exclusive movie showings, cultural lectures and art exhibitions. All designed to showcase Turkish heritage and culture to Washington DC.

ATA NEWS Magazine An award-winning quarterly full-color publication which shares community news, interviews and all matters of interest to the local Turkish community.

ATA-DC’s Atatürk School for children, with the support of their parents and the community continues to educate Turkish-American children to become productive American citizens who stay in touch with their Turkish heritage.

ATA-DC’s Annual Teacher’s Workshop which is held annually, introduces teachers of all grades from public and private school across the Washington DC to Turkish culture and history.

ATA-DC Connection Hours bring together people of all ages in a casual and informal setting for a great networking opportunity.

Young Cultural Ambassadors Program provides a month-long series of leadership activities for high school students from the Washington DC Metropolitan area.

In addition, we also organize the Annual Turkish Republic Day Gala, raise awareness of women’s causes through the International Woman’s Day Celebrations, celebrate national days such as April 23rd Children’s Day, and showcase Turkish heritage with cultural events, seminars and talks.
